

1.1

Function pow should take as second argument an int instead of double: `double pow(double, int)`

Why is there a lower limit for the maximal number of variables (`max_variables`) that can be stored at the same time ?

There is a typo in the ULM diagram: save returns a BOOL not void!!! Also in description: save returns BOOL not INT!!

delete returns BOOL not INT